

Introducing Earle Craft

He leads searches for the firm's AEC clients domestically and internationally, as well as oversees business development and marketing for the firm's Atlanta offices.

Prior to joining Gaines International, Craft spent almost two decades as the Vice President of Human Resources and Administration for tvsdesign, inc., a premier A&E design firm with offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dubai, and Shanghai. He has significant experience in a wide range of industries (domestic and international) including architecture, engineering, and interior design, banking, production/manufacturing, higher education, and media and entertainment in both union and non-union environments. He is a recognized HR leader and a trusted advisor who balances business priorities with workforce needs and demands.

Craft studied at the University of Miami School of Law and received his bachelor's degree, summa cum laude from the University of South Florida. He is also a State of Georgia Certified Mediator (Neutral). During his career Craft has been actively involved in many community and professional voluntary organizations. His interests and hobbies include classic cars, golf, hunting, and riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle. He currently resides in South Atlanta.
